

2017 Volunteer Museum Skills Development Grant - Recipients

Recipient	Project Name	Summary	Amount Awarded
Holbrook Submarine Museum	Disaster Combo Workshop for Albury & Greater Hume Regional Museums	Funds will be used to host Disaster Planning Workshops hosted by Tegan Anthes. The workshop will provide participants from seven volunteer run museums/collections with a practical understanding of Disaster Preparedness and the ability to develop an effective Disaster Preparedness Plan for their collections.	$2,182.00
Saumarez Homestead	Object Labelling and Marking Workshop	The aim of this workshop is to provide hands on training and advice on marking and labelling collection objects. Consultant Margot Jolly will provide training to volunteers and staff from small museums and members of the New England/Northwest Chapter of Museums Australia.	$3,752.00
South East History Group	Family History Expo	As part of National Family History Month held in August each year we are facilitating the provision of a venue for local Genealogy, Family History and Museum Groups to interface with the public. This event has been organized by this Society in the past and has been very successful. This event will benefit both our Museum network and the community in general by giving the opportunity of exposure to experts in the field of family history as well presenting opportunities to join the societies and become actively involved.	$1,691.13
Wollondilly Heritage Centre	Managing Glass Slides and Film Negatives Workshop	Funds will be used to host a workshop looking at the preservation and documentation slides and negatives. The workshop will be hosted by Tegan Anthes and will be attended by staff and volunteers from local museums.	$3,000.00

Yamba Museum	How to Curate Your Collection Workshop	To fund a MAAS regional 'How to Curate Your Collection' workshop with curator Roger Leong. This workshop will focus on curating textiles collections and will assist volunteers in developing basic skills in exhibitions development, formulating acquisitions, and assessing significant collection material. This workshop will assist in improving research and interpretation skills and will allow participants to refresh textiles displays and exhibitions.	$694.55
--------------	--	---	----------